

Please do not take the power from the states. in stoping unwanted telemarketing calls. The people in Indiana are smart and educated, If we want a product or service we Know all the avenues to use to get what we want. We do not need people calling and interrupting are family time for Windows,roofs,lawn service ect.